Dear Parents and Carers,

World Book Day – Thursday 4th March

World Book Day this year will be on Thursday 4th March, with the theme being 'Disability Awareness and Pride through books.'

In school, we have a collection of 'Abilities in Me' books – which are stories exploring days in the life of children with various abilities, such as Type 1 diabetes, hydrocephalus, congenital heart defects and autism. We will be sharing these books in school with pupils and on EFL via home learning, for those pupils that continue to learn at home.

We would also love to know of any other books that you would recommend which promote the widest possible range of children, parents, abilities and experiences – so please let us know if there are any other books you feel we should be adding to our library!

In order to help us celebrate World Book Day, pupils are invited to bring in a favourite book to share with their class. Pupils are also welcome to dress up as a favoured book character or bring in a prop. Please could you make sure that your child's name is on any books or props sent in to school.

Yours Sincerely,

Lyndsey Phillips

Subject Leader for English & PSHEE.
